What others say about Ti Kōuka Kindergarten

Children

- I like everything about kindergarten.
- I like the swings, the teachers and the playground.
- I love kindergarten.
- I like singing and playing with my friends.

Parents

- Wonderful teachers, excellent structures in place, fun, happy learning environment.
- E mihī kau aha ki kōutou mo ngā manaakitanga o te tangata. Very welcoming, warm and open to my son, family and cultural values.
- I felt like we were part of a little family the day my child started.
- Teachers are friendly and professional. I really felt that the teachers have the children's best interest at heart. They are genuine.

Education Review Office (Ministry of Education)

- Children and their families benefit from manaakitanga/ caring and whanaungatanga/ respectful relationships with their teachers; these values form the basis of the teaching practices.
- Children benefit from the ways that their teachers sensitively talk with them, carefully listen to them, value and build on their ideas and support their learning.
- A strength of this kindergarten is the inclusion of a bicultural dimension.
- Ti Kōuka kindergarten is established as a place of learning.
